

God created so many things that smell good. On day three, God created trees and flowers. I am thankful for the pretty smelling flowers.

