John 17:20-26 NIV

Jesus Prays for All Believers

20 “My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message, 21 that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me. 22 I have given them the glory that you gave me, that they may be one as we are one— 23 I in them and you in me—so that they may be brought to complete unity. Then the world will know that you sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me.

24 “Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am, and to see my glory, the glory you have given me because you loved me before the creation of the world.

25 “Righteous Father, though the world does not know you, I know you, and they know that you have sent me. 26 I have made you[a] known to them, and will continue to make you known in order that the love you have for me may be in them and that I myself may be in them.”

My Eyes Have Seen the Glory

My eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord,
Who is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored,
And has loosed the fateful lightning of a terrible swift sword;

Refrain

God's truth is marching on.

God's day is marching on.

Our God is marching on.

While God is on.

Glory, Glory, Hallelujah! Glory, Glory, Hallelujah!

Glory, Glory, Hallelujah! God's truth is marching on.

God has been there in the watchfires of a hundred circling camps,
where they built a sacred altar in the evening dew and damps;
I can read the righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps;

Refrain

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea, with a glory in whose bosom that transfigures you and me;
As Christ died to make us holy, let us die to make all free;

Refrain
